

International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP)

A program of the Bureau of Educational & Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State, and implemented by IREX

APPLICATION MATERIALS

The U.S. Department of State and IREX (the International Research & Exchanges Board) announce an open competition for secondary-level teachers of English as a Foreign Language, social studies, civics, mathematics and science for the International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP). ILEP will bring outstanding secondary teachers from the Near East, South Asia, and Southeast Asia to the U.S. for a five-month professional development program that seeks to:

- Enhance teachers' expertise in their teaching discipline and equip them with a deeper understanding of best practices in teaching methodologies, lesson planning, and the use of technology in teaching.
- Create among educators a more nuanced understanding of the U.S.
- Develop productive and lasting relationships and mutual understanding between U.S. and international teachers and their students.
- Contribute to improving teaching in participating countries by preparing participants to serve as teacher leaders, who upon returning home will apply and share their experience and skills with their peers and students.

International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP)
Program Application for International Teachers

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP) will provide 52 teachers from the Near East, South Asia, and Southeast Asia with unique opportunities to develop expertise in their subject areas, enhance their teaching skills and increase their knowledge about the United States. The program will consist of a semester-long academic program at a U.S. university, including coursework and intensive training in teaching methodologies, lesson planning, teaching strategies for their home environment, and teacher leadership, as well as the use of computers for Internet, word processing and as tools for teaching. The semester-long program will also include an internship at a secondary school to engage participants actively with American teachers and students. Trips to U.S. cultural sites and academic support will be provided for participants throughout the program.

ABOUT THE BUREAU OF EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries around the world. ECA does this through a wide range of international exchanges as authorized by the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, as amended. ECA works in close cooperation with U.S. Embassies overseas to promote personal, professional and institutional ties between private citizens and organizations in the United States and abroad.

U.S. Embassy/Tunis

All applications will be reviewed by the U.S. Embassy personnel. The latter will be interviewing all eligible candidates and forwarding their applications to IREX for final approval.

ABOUT IREX (INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH & EXCHANGES BOARD)

IREX is an international nonprofit organization providing leadership and innovative programs to improve the quality of education, strengthen independent media, and foster pluralistic civil society development.

Founded in 1968, IREX has an annual portfolio of $50 million and a staff of over 500 professionals worldwide. IREX and its partner IREX Europe deliver cross-cutting programs and consulting expertise in more than 50 countries.

ILEP Fellows will be selected through a merit-based open competition. After the deadline, U.S. Embassy/ Tunis will review all eligible applications. Top candidates will be interviewed by a panel set up by the U.S. Embassy, and will take the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) examination and/or another English-language proficiency exam at the U.S. Embassy or an alternate location in their country. An independent, U.S.-based selection committee will conduct a final review of applicants with top interview and English-language proficiency scores. All applicants will be notified of their status within four months of the application due date. The U.S. program will take place from January – May 2009.

Selection Criteria (not in order of importance):

- Professional and educational experience and achievements;
- Demonstrated commitment to teaching in the field of secondary education;
- Demonstrated leadership potential;
- English language skills adequate to live, study, and function independently in the U.S.;
- Preparedness (including maturity and flexibility) for an intensive U.S.-based training program; and
- Ability to express ideas clearly and effectively.

Applicants who have had few or no opportunities to travel to the U.S. will be given priority.

GENERAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS & SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Please answer all questions on the application.
- Please type or print in black ink.
- If a question does not apply to you, enter N/A (not applicable).
- Include your full, legal, family name (surname) first as spelled on your passport (if available) or other photo identification.
- Include complete contact information (including zip codes for all addresses and city codes for all phone and fax numbers if available).
- Write your full name, city, and country in the top right corner of each page.
- You may attach additional pages if necessary to answer the questions completely.
- Completed applications must be submitted to the U.S. Embassy no later than June 6, 2008, 4:00pm. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND INSTITUTION SUPPORT FORM

All applicants must include:

- One completed recommendation form from a person who is familiar with your professional work. Recommendations may be from colleagues or supervisors. Recommendations must be submitted with the application. Recommendations submitted separately will not be accepted. A family member may not write the recommendation.
- An Institution Support Form completed by the director of the school for which you are employed. This form will confirm that the school supports your participation in this program.

The same individual may complete the recommendation form and institution support form so long as that person is the head or chair of the school for which the applicant is employed.

Applicants must submit the original application and four complete copies (for a total of five copies). Each copy of the application should be submitted in the following order:

19. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE: The statement of purpose is the most important part of your application for the International Leaders in Education Program (ILEP) and will be read closely by members of the selection committee. Your response gives the selection committee an opportunity to understand you better as a person and to appreciate the value of your ideas, goals, and reasons for applying to the program. This section of the application is the only opportunity that you have in this stage of the competition to provide a picture of yourself that goes deeper than a simple list highlighting your experience, education, and accomplishments. Thus, we urge you to think carefully through your response before beginning to write. Responses should be properly thought out and developed. Responses written in illegible handwriting will not be considered.

On a separate piece of paper, please type or write a Statement of Purpose, in no more than 1500 words, answering the following questions:

1. Why did you become a teacher? Were you involved in another profession before teaching,
